CLASS POEM

Our Thanks

Oh, class of Blue and White, to you
We sing our song of praise;
May we bring honor to your name,
Your praise sing all our days.
Your other graduates gone before
Urge us to work anew,
And inspiration leave behind,
Oh, fifty-six, to you.

Oh, school, our Alma Mater, dear,
Led by thy hand may we
The service thou hast done for us
A part return to thee.
For friendships dear we have made here,
For joyous work and play,
For all that thou hast given us,
We give thee thanks today.

CLASS HISTORY

It is hard to believe that four years ago we were Freshmen. Because our school burned a few months afterward, it left us lost in this new kind of school life. Soon, however, we settled down to it and really began enjoying ourselves.

One year later we became Sophomores! We attended Ramseur High School all year. This year we were quite used to all the people in high school and we knew where we stood. We also had the pleasure of knowing how the freshmen felt. We had a Christmas party and other enjoyable activities during this year.

After a short vacation we returned for our Junior year, which was filled with many happy events. One was--we moved back to Franklinville.

Johnny Carter led our class as president. Six members of our class were honored to wear Beta Club Pins. The proud wearers of the red and white on the basketball court were Pat Prevo, Edith Craven, Dewey New, Calvin Scruggs. Carlton Cox, and Astor Kinney. After our class rings arrived, we were very excited and proud to show them to the underclassmen. The Junior-Senior Banquet was the highlight of the year. The theme was "SONG OF THE ISLES," and it was so pretty that it was worth all the work we put into it. Then came May, when we presented the Daisy Chain to the departing Seniors.

It wasn't long before we realized that we were Seniors! With Johnny Carter as our class president; Jewell Nance, Vice-President; Edith Craven, Secretary, and Robert Shaw as Treasurer, we proceeded onward toward graduation.

Our grade-parents took us out to a wonderful Christmas supper which we shall never forget.

The annual staff and members of the class all worked hard with the editor of THE CARDINAL, Pat Prevo, on the successful annual of 1956.

Although our four years at Franklinville High were short, we have had many happy experiences that will remain a part of us forever. As we leave our school it is not with regret that we say "Goodbye," but with the happy task of adjusting ourselves to the world and remembering the CLASS OF 1956.

Astor Kinney,
Historian

CLASS PROPHECY

In this day and age, many people say that "nothing is impossible." This thought, together with our class motto, "Where There's a Will, There's a Way," takes us into the future ten years to see the Seniors of '56 as they appear in the year 1966. It may be strange and surprising to see the future of the graduating class before us, but let's take a look. Shall we?

I see Doris Allred and her husband have just moved into their new home outside of Asheboro. In her spare time, she visits Randolph Hospital and reads stories to the children there.

Johnny Carter is now teaching mathematics in a northern university. It seems only yesterday he was presiding over our class meeting in high school.

Frances Coble is still helping her husband take care of their farm in Alamance County, and from what I hear, she is doing an excellent job.

What's this? "Carlton Cox is at spring training with the Detroit Tigers." I see his big dream came true. Good luck Cox, I know your former classmates are rooting for you 100 per cent.

Bascom Craven is president of a big chain store circuit. He is living like a king and making millions.

Our very attractive and intelligent Edith Craven was just voted "Miss North Carolina," and soon she will be competing for the "Miss America" title at Atlantic City.

I see Carolyn Frazier has given up teaching to go stay with her husband, who is conductor for a big construction company in Rome.

Dorothy Henson, who recently opened Dot's Beauty Salon, is doing very well. She has trouble explaining to the men that it is a beauty shop for women, not a barber shop.

I see Clifford Humble finally got the farm he had always wanted--1000 acres of it. We need more people like him to help feed our ever-increasing population.

Who is this? Why it's I, Nolan Hurley! A research chemist for the Rexall Drug Company. It looks as if my courses in chemistry are paying off after all.

"Duke & Carolina football on TV today with Astor Kinney on hand for the play by play accounts as it happens." Keep your eyes glued to the TV screen, because I know it's going to be a thrilling game.

I see Joseph Kinney is doing very well for himself, too. He is chief automobile designer for the Ford Motor Company. He and his family are living near Detroit.

CLASS PROPHECY

Betty Luck Wilson doesn't have time to go anywhere since she and her husband moved into their modern home, which is automatically controlled by buttons. When she finishes pressing and dusting the buttons, she doesn't have time to do anything else.

I see that Effie Luck married one of her old sweethearts. I hear she makes a very efficient housewife.

Doris Malone's secretarial career came to an end after she married her handsome boss. He now employs a sweet, grey-haired old lady.

Hubert Morgan finally opened his TV repair shop. Good luck, Hubert, and may all your picture tubes be large ones.

I saw Jewell Nance the other day. She was driving her husband to the office in one of their new Cadillacs. Her husband had to buy two of them because she couldn't decide which color was prettier.

Do you want to know what happened to Calvin and Buddy? Well, watch for the grand opening of Scruggs & New's Furniture Store next week. I hear their specialty is going to be psychiatrist's couches.

Did you see that picture on the front page of The Saturday Evening Post? Yes, it was Pat Prevo. She is just out of modeling school and already you can see her picture all over the country.

For the past eight years, Robert Shaw has been in the Air Force. If he doesn't re-enlist again, he has a job as pilot waiting for him with TWA.

Betty Sue Smith, the famous oil painter, has many paintings to her credit. You can find at least one of her masterpieces in every art museum in the United States and France.

Peggy Smith is still engaged, but soon she will have a wedding band to match her diamond after her fiance graduates from medical school.

I see Carolyn Trogdon is still receptionist for a big law firm in Greensboro.

James Thorpe just bought out a large trucking company. Many people are depending on him for his fast and dependable service.

It wasn't hard for me to see the future of the graduating class tonight, and we are very happy to share our coming years with you. That, Friends, is the future of the Class of '56.

Nolan Hurley, Prophet

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the graduating class of 1956, realizing that the close of our school days is near at hand, think it wise to leave something to those who in the future will take our places.

In the course of our high school days, naturally, we have accumulated various and valuable possessions; our years have been fruitful. We have acquired a vast store of knowledge along with some other things that will help us through our lives.

Many problems and happy moments have taken place in our lives since we entered the first grade twelve long years ago. But down the path where our footprints have trod we have had the wonderful guidance and help of our principal and teachers. They have helped us over the rough spots, helped us with our many problems, and have shared in our happy moments. We hope the footprints that we leave at dear old "Franklinville High" will be memories to be cherished. As we leave here, we also leave our valuable possessions, because the Juniors would be handicapped if we took them with us.

To our principal, Mr. Holland, we leave our deepest appreciation for his helpfulness and co-operation in helping us to achieve our goal.

To our sponsor, Miss Buie, we can never express the help she has been to us, and so we leave our heartfelt thanks for her guidance and interest in all of our class activities.

To our teachers, who have been outstanding in leadership and guidance, we leave our hopes that other students will give them more ease and peace of mind and that they will be more willing to abide by the rules and regulations.

To the individuals we bequeath the following characteristics:

I, Doris Allred, will my superlative "Most Likely To Succeed," to Linda Cheek, my ability to talk on study hall to Simon Allred and Bryce Haithcock, and to anyone who has the nerve to put up with it, I leave my shorthand book.

I, Johnny Carter, will my superlative, "Most Studious," to Linda Cheek, "Friendliest," to Virginia Daniels, and my ability to get the back seat on class to anyone who isn't fortunate enough to get the front.

I, Carlton Cox, will my superlatives, "Most Athletic," to Bill Patterson, and "Most Versatile," to Sandra Cox.

I, Bascom Craven, will my typewriter to anyone who can use it as I did, and my ability to sell ice cream to anyone who can eat more than I did.

I, Edith Craven, will my ability to get off classes to Lucy Landon; my class superlatives, "Miss Franklinville High," to Janie York, "Best Looking," to Ruby Dunn, and "Most Versatile," to Joseph Williamson.

I, Carolyn Frazier, will my Underwood Typewriter to Shelby Luck, my shorthand book to Virginia Daniels, and my ability to get along with Mr. Thomas to anyone who is as talkative as I am.

I, Dorothy Henson, will my superlative, "Wittiest," to Junior Luck, and my ability to stand at the front of the bus to anyone who has nerve enough to stand there.

I, Clifford Humble, will my superlative, "Most Courteous," to Claud Pugh and my seat on second period study hall to Charles Wright.

I, Nolan Hurley, will my superlative, "Wittiest," to Lucy Landon, my place as the only boy in shorthand class to anyone who likes fun and excitement as well as I do; to Delores Stalker, I leave the memories and hard work of the Senior year, so she may use them to a better advantage than I did.

I, Astor Kinney, will my bus No. 19, to Gilbert Edwards, and my position as sports writer to anyone who pulls for "Carolina."

I, Joseph Kinney, will my superlative, "Most Likely To Succeed," to Claud Pugh.

I, Effie Luck, will my superlative, "Most Studious," to Junior Luck, and my ability to get out of my bus seat to anyone who wants to take it.

I, Betty Luck Wilson, will my superlative, "Most Dignified," to Carol Cox, my ability to talk on Mrs. Morgan's study hall to everybody, and my senior desk to whoever can find it.

I, Doris Malone, will my ability to talk to Don Reece and Bobby Smith on Mr. Thomas's study hall to Gail Dennis, and my conceited ways to Delores Stalker.

I, Hubert Morgan, will my superlative, "Most Dignified," to Frances Burgess, my parking place in the morning to Tommy Malone, and my ability to "fix" the typewriters to Claud Pugh.

I, Jewell Nance, will my superlative, "Most Popular," to Patty Rich, and my driving habits to Tommy Hoover.

I, Dewey New, will my superlatives, "Best Personality," to Ruby Dunn, and "Best Looking," to John Higgins.

I, Patricia Prevo, will my class superlatives, "Most Athletic," to Rita Prevo, and "Cutest," to Jane York.

I, Calvin Scruggs, will my superlative, "Mr. Franklinville High," to John Higgins, and my bus to Tony Moon.

I, Robert Shaw, will my class superlatives, "Most Popular," to Joe Williamson, "Most Talented," to Jo Ann Luck, and bus No. 16 to anyone who can drive it; I leave my seat in chemistry to anyone who pulls for "State."

I, Betty Sue Smith, will my superlatives, "Most Courteous," to Gilbert Edwards, "Best All Round," to Linda Cheek; to Delores Stalker I leave my ability to talk on class, and my ability to be tardy nearly every morning to Gail Dennis.

I, Peggy Smith, will my superlatives, "Best Personality," to Joseph Williamson, and "Most Talented," to Janice McCorquodale.

I, Jimmie Thorpe, will my superlative, "Most Dependable," to Harvey Ferree, my bus to Bryce Haithcock, and my typewriter to the fastest one in the class.

I, Carolyn Trogdon, will my front seat to Newton Trogdon, in hope that he might use it better than I did.
